

TREASURER'S OFFICE
OF THE
WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.
A. F. SEEBERGER, Treasurer.
Room 458, No. 160 Adams Street.

CHICAGO, March 2nd, 1893.

O. C. Bosbychell, Esq.,

Supt. of U. S. Mint,

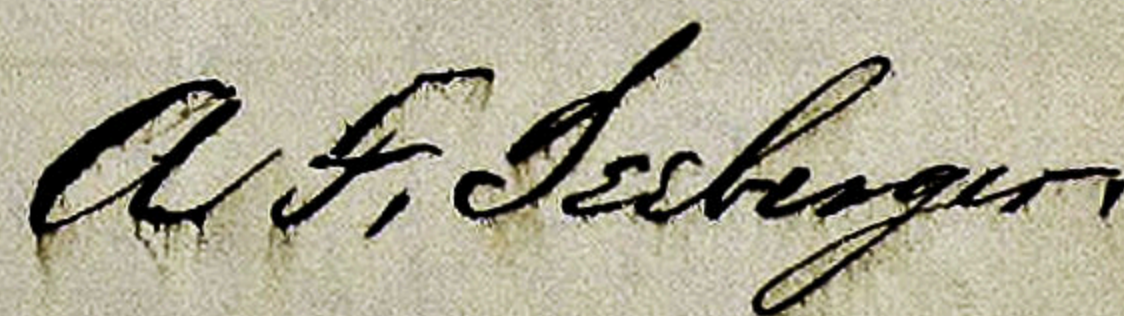

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:--

Referring to the subject of returning kegs, I would say that we have eighty-eight (88) kegs yet which are not empty and several wooden boxes containing Coins shipped by you. I would consider it as a special favor to be allowed to send you new kegs in place of those containing the Coins which are unpacked. The new kegs will in all respects fully equal those of the old ones and will reach you in much better shape.

We are so situated in reference to the Coins, that it becomes necessary to use those in the kegs now without unpacking them, and being thoroughly well assured that you will like the new kegs as well, if not better, than the old ones, I will ask you to kindly consent to this. They will be forwarded at once.

Yours truly,

Treasurer.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 180

Treasurer's Office of the World's Columbian Exposition.
Chicago,
March 2, 1893

O.C. Bosbyshell, Esq.,
Supt. of U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir: --

Referring to the subject of returning kegs, I would say that we have eighty-eight (88) kegs yet which are not empty and several wooden boxes containing Coins shipped by you. I would consider it as a special favor to be allowed to send you new kegs in place of those containing the Coins which are unpacked. The new kegs will in all respects fully equal those of the old ones and will reach you in much better shape.

We are so situated in reference to the Coins, that it becomes necessary to use those in the kegs now without unpacking them, and being thoroughly well assured that you will like the new kegs as well, if not better, than the old ones, I will ask you to kindly consent to this. They will be forwarded at once.

Yours truly,
A.F. Seeberger
Treasurer.